

ALAMEDA COUNTY TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

SENIOR TRANSPORTATION ENGINEER

Salary: $103,655 - $134,751 Annually

Final Filing Date: December 22, 2014

The Area:

Alameda County is the geographic center of the San Francisco Bay Area, located across the Bay from the San Francisco peninsula, which stretches from the Golden Gate Bridge south to Silicon Valley. Alameda County encompasses 813 square miles of land and has a population in excess of 1.5 million people, making it the second most populated county in the Bay Area after Santa Clara County. The County is bounded on the west by the San Francisco Bay. The crest of the East Bay Hills forms part of the northeastern boundary and reaches into the center of the County.

The Organization:

The Alameda County Transportation Commission (Alameda CTC) held its first Board meeting on July 22, 2010, implementing the first stages of the merger of the Alameda County Congestion Management Agency (ACCMMA) and the Alameda County Transportation Improvement Authority (ACTIA). This merger allows for better coordination of transportation planning and programming within the County, as well as positions Alameda County jurisdictions and transit agencies to better compete for limited state and federal transportation dollars.

The Position:

Alameda CTC is looking for a motivated, highly specialized individual to serve as the lead transportation programming engineer and lead administrator of locally funded programs (sales tax revenues and vehicle registration fees), including pass-through programs. The Senior Transportation Engineer will manage, coordinate, and facilitate the development and administration of funding distribution, programming policies and procedures, grants guidelines, evaluation criteria, selection, monitoring and control processes; and provide complex professional assistance to the executive team in areas of expertise.

Minimum Qualifications:

EDUCATION: Equivalent to graduation from an accredited four-year college or university with major coursework in civil engineering, transportation engineering, or a related field.

EXPERIENCE: Five (5) years of progressively responsible experience in civil, traffic, and/or transportation engineering and related activities.

The Examination Process:

Final Filing Date: December 22, 2014. To apply, candidates must submit a fully completed and signed Commission application and resume via email to infokoff@koffassociates.com or by mail to Koff & Associates, 6400 Hollis Street, Suite 5, Emeryville, CA 94608 by December 22, 2014.

An application can be obtained at www.koffassociates.com.

Selection Procedures: After the final filing date of December 22, 2014, application packets will be reviewed. Candidates with qualifications best meeting the needs of Alameda CTC will be invited to participate in an interview process. Alameda CTC will make the final decision regarding a candidate's eligibility. All applicants will be notified by mail regarding further participation in the selection process. Travel costs are at the applicant's expense. Applicants considered for appointment will be required to undergo a post-job offer, pre-employment background investigation.

Benefits (subject to the Commission's approval of a Salary & Benefits Resolution):

Retirement Program in the California Public Employee Retirement System (CalPERS):

- Classic Member (current member of CalPERS) - 2.5% at age 55 (employee contributes 3%)
- New Member (under new PEPRA laws) – 2% at age 62 (employee contributes 6.25%)

Generous Cafeteria Plan which employees can use to choose the following:

- Health, Dental, and Vision Insurance; and
- Life, AD&D, and Long-term and Short-Term Disability Insurance.

Vacation Leave: Starts at 10 days per year and increases based on years of service.

Sick Leave: Accrued at 1 day per month.

Holidays: 11 paid holidays, plus 2 floating holidays, per year.

Other generous benefits, including transit subsidy, flexible spending accounts, tuition assistance, etc.

Alameda CTC is an Equal Opportunity/ADA Employer

Female, Minority, and Disabled Candidates are Encouraged to Apply
