

Now accepting applications for

Homeless Services Manager

The City of Fairfield is recruiting for the vital and exciting position of Homeless Services Manager to coordinate with City Departments and others to develop best-practice based public policy to permanently reduce homelessness in the City of Fairfield.

$122,703.36 - $149,148.48 Annually

OUR COMMUNITY

Fairfield is a vibrant and diverse community with respect for its heritage and a vision for the future.

Fairfield combines a prime commercial real estate location, room for growing businesses, and a large and talented work force. Affordable housing, good schools and close proximity to many of the San Francisco Bay Area's world-famous destinations make Fairfield attractive for employers and workers.

THE POSITION

The City of Fairfield Housing Services Department is recruiting for a Homeless Services Manager. This critical position will plan, organize and direct all the City's homeless services programs working with partnering agencies, the community and local governing boards.

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS

The annual salary range for the Homeless Services Manager is $122,703.36 - $149,148.48.

Placement within the stated range will be based upon the selected candidate's experience and qualifications.

- A 9/80 work schedule with the 1st and 3rd Fridays off each month
- CalPERS pension eligibility
- Generous contributions to medical, dental, and vision plans
- 144 hours of personal leave (cashable) annually, plus vacation and sick leave
- City paid life insurance and contributions to deferred comp and retirement health savings

To learn more and apply, visit www.governmentjobs.com/careers/fairfield

The City of Fairfield is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to creating a work environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and professionalism.

IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal candidate will demonstrate strong collaborative leadership, written and verbal communication skills, political non-partisan savvy and the project management skills necessary to complete complex housing projects. Grant writing, fundraising and real estate development experience are advantageous. A compassionate, creative and mission driven advocate is desired.

EXPERIENCE & QUALIFICATIONS

- Five (5) years progressively responsible experience working in local government or a non-profit environment with diverse agencies in the provision of services to homeless or at-risk populations, including two (2) years experience in a lead or supervisory capacity.
- A Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in Social Work, Behavioral Science, Business Administration, or Public Administration or a closely related field. A Master's degree is highly desirable.

