THE CITY OF SAN BERNARDINO

Founded in 1810, San Bernardino is a progressive community rich in history and cultural diversity. Recognized for its scenic beauty and strategic location, the City of San Bernardino, serves as the county seat and is the largest City in the County of San Bernardino, with a population of over 218,000 and more than 62 square miles. To keep its vision for the future at the forefront, the City of San Bernardino follows the guiding principles to be strong and prosperous by adopting the shared values of Integrity, Accountability, Respect for Human Dignity, Honesty, and Fairness.

Residents of the City can expect quality, cost-effective services and an excellent public safety program dedicated to providing the highest level of police and emergency services. The two hospitals within the City limits, Community Hospital of San Bernardino and St. Bernardine's Medical Center, are state-of-the-art facilities. City residents also have access to the nearby Arrowhead Regional Medical Center and the world-renowned Loma Linda University Medical Center.

Home to one of only a few premier soccer facilities in Southern California, visitors and residents of the City of San Bernadino will find no shortage of entertainment. With 35 parks and 11 community centers, residents and visitors can enjoy playgrounds, swimming, youth sports, adult sports, senior activities, and special interest classes. The City's menu of programs and services includes a public library system comprised of one primary and three library branches, which provide life-long learning to the world of ideas, information, and creative experience for all citizens of San Bernardino. There are multiple venues for art, performing art, and concerts in the City, such as the historic California Theater, Sturges Center for the Arts, Roosevelt Bowl, National Orange Show Events Center, Glen Helen Amphitheater, and the Garcia Center for the Arts. Several colleges provide quality education and programs, including San Bernardino Valley College, California State University, San Bernardino, and Loma Linda University Health – San Bernardino Complex.

With a look to the future, the City is working hard to move the community forward and improve city services and quality of life. San Bernadino is, now more than ever, a city of opportunity.

CITY GOVERNANCE

The City of San Bernardino is a Charter City and governed by the Council-Manager form of government. The governance structure is comprised of an at-large, elected Mayor and seven Council Members elected by constituents in the specific ward. Each elected official serves a four-year term.

MISSION STATEMENT

Our mission is to provide quality and cost-effective services to the people of San Bernardino. We will provide excellence in leadership through the allocation of public resources to City programs that are responsive to community priorities and maximize opportunities for economic, educational, and cultural viability.

Key Functions and Priorities

- Plan, organize, manage, and evaluate the work of the Human Resources department to meet department and city-wide goals and objectives; implement programs, processes, procedures, and policies required to achieve overall department performance results.
- Participate with the City Manager, elected officials, and other managers in establishing strategic plans for the City.
- Establish performance requirements and personal development targets; monitor performance and provide coaching for performance improvement and development; provide or recommend compensation and other rewards to recognize performance.
- Provide leadership and works with supervisors and staff to develop and retain highly competent, customer service-oriented staff through selection, compensation, training, and day-to-day management practices that support the City's mission, strategic goals, and core values.
- Provide expert advice to management on a wide range of human resource management issues and practices, including complex, sensitive, and confidential organizational and human resources issues.

- Serve as lead negotiator with bargaining units. Conduct meet and confer sessions and participate in administering labor contracts after an agreement is reached; advise on employee relations matters, including grievance and disciplinary procedures and actions.
- Directs recruitment activities for all classified City positions, the development and maintenance of comprehensive classification and compensation plans, administration of City performance evaluation practices and programs, training and development programs, workplace safety training for employees, supervisors, and managers, administration of a tuition and education program, and equity, diversity, and inclusion programs.
- Propose and direct administration of the City's program of health and welfare benefits; recommend benefits program design changes and negotiate benefit plan provisions and rates and coordinate City administration of retirement programs.
- Direct the development and administration of risk management programs, including audits and investigations, to ensure compliance with safety, health, and environmental safety regulations and requirements.
- Represent the City in meetings with professional and community groups and provide other human resource duties as needed.

Priorities and Opportunities

- Continue to build on the City's diversity, equity, and inclusion plan and vision.
- Increase employee training, education, and development opportunities.
- Create alignment and structure in the risk management transition.
- Ensure the success of the City's classification and compensation study currently underway.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal candidate will be an innovative, flexible, and collaborative leader. As a problem solver with excellent communication, the successful candidate will have the necessary interpersonal skills to build positive working relationships with staff, department heads, leadership, and elected officials. The successful candidate will be solutions-oriented, have strong political acumen, and have the ability to adapt to changing and competing priorities. A background in public sector budget development, policy administration, staff management, and team building are key. Experience in a union environment and knowledge of negotiations is a must.

Key Attributes and Characteristics

- Excellent leadership skills with a calm demeanor; a leader that reassures staff while inspiring confidence.
- Detail-oriented and accurate with the ability to articulate concepts and ideas clearly and directly.
