

Irvine Ranch Water District

SENIOR HUMAN RESOURCES ANALYST & HUMAN RESOURCES ANALYST

The Irvine Ranch Water District is recruiting for two (2) positions, (1) Sr. Human Resources Analyst assigned to Recruitment and Selection & (1) Human Resources Analyst assigned to Benefits Administration/HRIS.

THE COMMUNITY

Serving several communities in central Orange County, Irvine Ranch Water District (IRWD) encompasses approximately 181 square miles. IRWD extends from the Pacific Coast to the foothills, with elevations ranging from sea level to 3,200 feet. Orange County is a semi-arid region with a mild climate and an average annual rainfall of 12 to 13 inches. With a population over 3 million, Orange County is the third largest county in California and one of the largest in the United States.

Orange County is known for its numerous tourist attractions, cultural opportunities, Mediterranean climate, beautiful beaches, and large wilderness and natural areas. The County is a leading California business center and home to some of the nation's leading companies in the biotechnical, medical, electronic, computer, information, video gaming, cosmetic, clothing, finance, and other fields.

THE DISTRICT

IRWD is a progressive, values-driven agency, with an international reputation for its leading-edge financial management practices, water recycling program, water use efficiency practices, water banking, urban runoff treatment, and energy generation and storage.

Established in 1961 as a California Water District under the provisions of the California Water Code, IRWD is an independent special district serving central Orange County. IRWD provides high-quality drinking water, reliable sewage collection and treatment, ground-breaking recycled water programs, and environmentally sound urban runoff treatment to its customers. As an independent, not-for-profit public agency, IRWD is governed by a publicly elected five-member Board of Directors. The Board is responsible for the District's policies and decision-making. Day-to-day operations are supervised by the General Manager. Additional information can be found at the District's website: www.IRWD.com.

ABOUT THE POSITION(S)

The Irvine Ranch Water District is seeking dynamic and experienced human resources professionals who are collaborative, communicative, customer service focused, detail-oriented, innovative, professional, skilled, committed to continuous process improvement, and demonstrate agility.

SENIOR HUMAN RESOURCES ANALYST

The ideal candidate is one with a keen understanding of Recruitment and Selection, with strong verbal and written communication skills, a consultative style and approach, and the ability to think strategically and translate concepts into actionable items. The Senior Human Resources Analyst performs highly technical and professional level support in the daily administration of recruitment and selection.

HUMAN RESOURCES ANALYST

The District is also seeking a Human Resources Analyst to participate in the administration of pay and benefit bi-weekly Human Resources Information System (HRIS) processing and ensure accurate system implementation of pay and benefit changes. The ideal candidate will also participate in the administration and analysis of the District's benefit program operations including health, life, dental, disability, unemployment insurance, employee assistance programs flexible spending accounts, retirement and leave-of absence administration.

IRWD CORPORATE VALUES

IRWD believes that its values – when shared and practiced universally – drive the character, culture, and capacity of our organization. IRWD was built on values, and we weave them into the fabric of everything we do.

Values are the ingredients in our recipe for both institutional and individual success. They are a code of conduct to promote positive outcomes for others and ourselves. They are more than words on a wall or a website. We live by them, every day. We pledge to keep them relevant in an ever-changing world.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

SENIOR HUMAN RESOURCES ANALYST

The Senior Human Resources Analyst class is the advanced journey level in the Human Resources Analyst series performing complex assignments including serving as specialists in highly technical human resources areas, and typically serving in a lead capacity. These assignments require considerable technical skill, specialized knowledge, and independent professional judgment. Positions in this class are distinguished from the lower-level class of Human Resources Analyst by the level of technical specialization and level of responsibility over these technical areas.

HUMAN RESOURCES ANALYST

The Human Resources Analyst is the entry-level in the Human Resources Analyst series. Assignments require knowledge, expertise, experience, and skills in a broad range of professional personnel administration areas, independence, initiative, and the ability to perform complex and difficult analytical tasks related to a broad range of assignments. The work requires creativity and resourcefulness to accomplish goals and objectives.
